Harrisonburg City Public Schools, in cooperation with the United States Western District Court, is hosting a community education event focusing on "Educating the Whole Child." This event culminates a day of student-based educational presentations held at Skyline Middle School and Thomas Harrison Middle School. Parents and community members are invited to attend this presentation, which will feature a keynote address by The Honorable Judge Michael Urbanski, followed by breakout sessions focusing on bullying prevention, setting limits for elementary age students, handling a child's stress, and a follow-up conversation with Judge Urbanski.

The event will be held Tuesday, October 28, 2014. A complimentary dinner will be provided at 5:45 pm, with the keynote address beginning at 6:30 pm. Childcare for children age 3 and older will be available. Spanish interpreters will be provided and additional language interpretation may be requested by calling the HCPS Welcome Center at (540) 433-3644.
