Harrisonburg City Public Schools is hosting a community outreach event - Healthy Brains, Healthy Kids - at Thomas Harrison Middle School on Wednesday, April 22nd at 5:00 pm. The event begins with a Kids Resource Fair featuring 25 community agencies offering information about summer opportunities for kids. A complimentary dinner, childcare and interpreting services will be provided. The keynote address, provided by James Madison University's Dr. Jen Newton, will focus on the importance of keeping kids active and learning during the summer months. Informational breakout sessions will follow on topics such as social media awareness, social competence, and resources provided by libraries.
