Out-of-Network Services
Using Doctors, Hospitals and Other Health Care Professionals not Contracted to Provide Benefits
It's important to remember that health care professionals not in our network can charge whatever they want for their services. If what they charge is more than the fee our network health care professionals have agreed to accept for the same service, they may bill you for the difference between the two amounts. You will pay all the costs associated with the covered services outlined in this insert until you have paid $750 in one calendar or plan year. This is called your out-of-network deductible. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ If two people are covered under your plan, each of you will pay the first $750 of the cost of your care ($1,500 total). ○ If three or more people are covered under your plan, together you will pay the first $1,500 of the cost of your care. However, the most one family member will pay is $750. Once you have reached this amount, when you receive covered services we will pay 60% of the fee our network health care professionals have agreed to accept for the same service. You will pay the rest, including any difference between the fee our network health care professionals have agreed to accept for the same service and the amount the health care professional not in our network charges. If you go to an eye care professional not in our network for your routine eye examination, we will pay $30 (whether or not you have reached the $750 out-of-network deductible) and you will pay the rest of what the professional charges.
